

REMARKS

Original informal drawing Figures 2-21 have been replaced by formal drawing Figures 2-21. Original Figures 1A – 1D remain unchanged, and a duplicate set of these figures is provided as a courtesy.

Original informal drawing Figures 2-21 consisted of computer screen-shots captured from a windowed graphical user interface. As such, a larger amount of extraneous and irrelevant material was included in the original informal drawing Figures 2-21. Some of this irrelevant material, such as scroll bars, window borders, and menu bars which are unrelated to the features illustrated by the respective figure have been deleted from the new formal drawing Figures 2-21. All essential and described material has been retained.

No new matter is added by these drawing amendments.

Respectfully submitted,
